Your application indicates that you understand and agree to the policies of the workshop.

Registrants will be sent directions and a listing of accommodations and services in the area. You will make your own reservations for accommodations. There are a limited number of low cost accommodations on or near the farm for September 18th and 19th.

Please briefly answer the following questions:

1. What in particular brings you to this training?

2. Are you Vegan? Vegetarian? Have serious food allergies?

3. I am interested in information about on-the-farm accommodations and dinner on Tuesday, September 19th. Yes_____ No_____

Please note: We will identify potential allergy ingredients (peanuts, eggs, etc.) but cannot guarantee that foods in our kitchen have not been in contact with foods to which you may have an allergy. For your safety, if you need to bring some of your own food, let us know so we can save a space in our refrigerator.

Cancellation policy: Workshop payment is fully refundable if notification given by August 29th. From August 29th to September 12th payments will be returned minus a $40 withdrawal fee. After September 12th payment is not refundable.

Notes: There is a minimum number of participants needed to run the workshop.

A participant must fully attend all hours of a workshop in order to receive a verification certificate of completion.

Continental breakfast, light lunch, coffee and snacks will be available on both days.

All participants should be within easy driving distance of the workshop by the morning of the day(s) you are planning to attend. We are in a rural area and you'll need to watch directions carefully to end up where you need to be. Yes...your GPS should work just fine here.
